THE STAR is printed a day earlier this week to give the employes the opportunity to enjoy Christmas.

The pioneer scene in Strauss Bros' piano store display window is the most unique and attractive window in town.

Miss Daisy Louise Strong, of Reynoldsville, and Harry N. Wilson, of Puxsawtawney, will be married Tuesday, December 31, 1907.

The new electric cluster window lights in Gillespies store are certainly illuminators. Make a very pretty and attractive window light.

B. W. Sykes, of Troutville, brother of our townsman, G. W. Sykes, has announced his candidacy for the office of treasurer of Clearfield county.

Rev. C. A. Wilson, pastor of the Baptist church in Ridgway, has accepted a call to become pastor of a Baptist church at Red Cloud, Neb.

Mrs. Mary Flynn went to Philadelphia Monday to spend the holidays with her sons, Frank and Eugene Flynn. The former is a lawyer in Philadelphia and the latter is a student in the Medico-Chirurgical College.

Jonathan Deemer, a McCalmont township farmer, lost a valuable cow one night last week by drowning in a well. The cow got out of barn in some mysterious way and walked on to the well platform which broke through and let her into the well.

A. J. Postlethwait, formerly of this place, now of Pricedale, Westmoreland Co., has resigned his position with the Federal Supply Co. to accept a position the first of the year with the Valley Supply Company at Fayette City, Fayette Co., Pa.

"I'm Married Now" was played at the Grand opera house in Puxsawtawney last Friday night and the Spirit says: "There is no plot in the production, but the whole is a very attractive musical comedy. It is an exceedingly funny and mirth producing offering." At Park Theatre this, Tuesday, evening.

Antonio Fiore, an Italian, was arrested in DuBois last Thursday on a charge of stealing chickens. He recently completed a two and a half year term in the penitentiary. He claims to have stolen two thousand chickens and thirty-three turkeys during his career as a chicken thief.

MARRIED SATURDAY EVENING.

Mrs. Julia A. Reynolds and Thomas M. Jewel Joined in Matrimony.

At 9 o'clock p. m. Saturday, Dec. 21, 1907, at the home of the bride on Main street, Mrs. Julia Reynolds, of this place, and Thomas M. Jewel, of Dayton, Pa., were united in marriage by Dr. J. A. Parsons, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. The only persons to witness the ceremony was Mrs. Mary Sloppy, of DuBois, sister of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Guthrie and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Weed, of West Reynoldsville, Mr. and Mrs. Jewel left here on the early train Monday morning on a wedding trip to Andover, Ohio, to visit the latter's sister, Mrs. Jennie Morley. Mrs. Jewel, who was wife of Albert Reynolds, deceased, has always resided in Reynoldsville, and is well and favorably known in town. Mr. Jewel, who is a comparative stranger in this place, is highly spoken of by those well acquainted with him. THE STAR joins their friends in congratulations and good wishes for the future. They will reside in Reynoldsville.

New Heater in Theatre.

The managers of Park Theatre have had trouble ever since the theatre was opened in getting the building comfortably warm during cold weather, but that trouble has been overcome by putting a new heater in the building last week. Those who go to see "I'm Married Now" at the Park Theatre to-night will find the building comfortable.

Successful Institute.

It is claimed that the teachers' institute held in Brookville last week was a very successful institute, not only from an educational standpoint, but from point of attendance. The sleighing was fairly good and the residents from the rural district added largely to the attendance. The teachers seemed to be well pleased with County Superintendent Jones' effort in providing talent for the institute.

Old Rivals Will Play.

One of the fastest basket ball games of the season will be played in the Park Theatre Christmas night between Reynoldsville and Ridgway teams. As these teams are old rivals a great game is expected, and lovers of the game should not miss this contest. The Reynoldsville team will be composed of following players: Oberlin, McEntire, Thornton, Bohren, Deible, Harris, Love and Murray. Game called at 8.15. Admission 25 cents.

John Lenkerd Dead.

John Lenkerd, of Jefferson Line, Pa., father of G. W. and Miss Lillie Lenkerd, died at his home early Saturday morning, Dec. 21, of catarrhal bronchitis, aged 73 years. He had been ill four months. Deceased was known to a number of Reynoldsville people having visited here frequently while his son, G. W. Lenkerd, resided in this place. Mr. Lenkerd was highly respected wherever known. Funeral was held Monday afternoon and interment was made in the Salem cemetery.

J. N. Kelly, of Brookville, one of our efficient county commissioners who is a Republican candidate for re-nomination, was in town Friday and called at THE STAR office. Mr. Kelly has carefully looked after the county's interests during his present term, which will be a boost for him for a second term.

Only a few more days remain in which to pay your taxes and save 5 per cent. After the first of January, 1908, 5 per cent will be added to all taxes. Tax Collector Wm. Copping will be found at the City Hotel.

John O'Donnell, who had been an invalid four years with Bright's disease, died at his home on Jackson street at 5.20 p. m. Saturday, Dec. 21. Deceased was born in Ireland in 1844. High Mass was said in the Catholic church Monday morning and interment was made in the Catholic cemetery.

A two day meeting for bible study will be held in the Reynoldsville M. E. church Monday and Tuesday of next week, December 30 and 31. See announcement of meeting from Dr. J. A. Parsons, which will be found in this issue of THE STAR. The two day meeting is to be followed by evangelistic services.

C. E. Radaker, proprietor of one the hotels at Anita, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for sheriff. Inasmuch as McCalmont township has never been honored by a citizen of that township being elected to a county office, Mr. Radaker thinks he has just claims on the Republican voters for their support at the primary election next April.

Judge John W. Reed, of Brookville, has evidently earned a wide reputation for ability and fairness in hearing court cases. Besides his regular duties in presiding over the various sessions in Jefferson county, he was called to preside over the Beaver county courts during the first of the celebrated Patterson conspiracy cases, and has promised to hear two more cases against the same defendant in March. In January Judge Reed will assist Judge Galbreath, of Butler county, -Puxsawtawney Spirit.

UNEXPECTED DEATH.

Mrs. Clara V. Shick Passed Away Sunday after a Short Illness.

The friends of Mrs. Clara M. Shick were greatly surprised and shocked to hear Sunday morning that she had died Saturday night, as it was not known to very many that she was even seriously ill. For several days Mrs. Shick had been complaining from what was supposed to be an attack of grip, but about eight o'clock Saturday morning she went into convulsions and never fully recovered consciousness after that. At 11 55 p. m. Saturday she passed from earthly scenes.

Mrs. Shick was born at Worthville, Pa., July 24, 1860. Her maiden name was Clara Malinda Wagner. She was united in marriage to Samuel V. Shick May 3, 1879. Mr. and Mrs. Shick moved to Reynoldsville thirteen years ago and Mr. Shick engaged in the mercantile business with John H. Wagner, his brother-in-law, doing business under the firm name of Shick & Wagner. After the death of Mr. Shick, which took place eight years ago last June, Mrs. Shick retained her interest in the store.

Early in life Mrs. Shick united with the Evangelical church at Worthville and retained her membership until they moved to Iowa Mills, several years before coming to Reynoldsville, when she joined the M. E. church at Emerickville. When they moved to Reynoldsville she brought her letter to the M. E. church at this place. She was a consistent member of the church. She was a member of the Foreign Missionary Society and the Helping Hand Society of the church. Mrs. Shick was also a member of the Women's Relief Corps.

Deceased is survived by two daughters, her mother, two brothers and five sisters. The daughters are: Mrs. Eva Butler, of Listle, Pa., Mrs. Kittle Raymond, Smethport, Pa., and the brothers and sisters are: J. E. Wagner, of Worthville, John H. Wagner, of Reynoldsville, Mrs. Kate Haines, of St. Louis, Mich., Mrs. Lizzie Graham, of Worthville, Mrs. Alice Smith, of Reynoldsville, Mrs. Flora Jones, of Knoxdale, Mrs. Minnie Dinger, of Worthville.

Mrs. Shick was highly esteemed by a large circle of friends. She was a kind mother and a good neighbor.

Funeral service was held at the residence of John H. Wagner, on Fifth st., at 7.30 p. m. Monday, conducted by Dr. J. A. Parsons, assisted by Rev. A. D. McKay. The body was taken to Worthville on the 8.08 a. m. train to day (Tuesday), where funeral service was conducted by Rev. H. B. Jelbart, of Brookwayville, and entombment was made in Worthville cemetery. Hughes & Fleming had charge of the funeral. The floral tributes were beautiful.

Speaking of Christmas.

C. R. Hall, at the house furnishing store, has a wonderful lot of the handsomest rockers, both upholstered and plain, and wishes to close them out at a reduction. See the goods and prices. We want to reduce our stock before first of year, invoicing time, and are offering some extra bargains on some lines on which we are a little over stocked. Robinson & Mundorff. See the superb line of bath robes at Millirens. Try a brick of our ice cream for Christmas dinner. Velvet Ice Cream and Candy Co. Shirts from 50c to $3.00 at Bell's. Silk and linen handkerchiefs at Bell's suitable for Christmas presents. Christmas rockers at Hall's.

GLASS PLANT CO-OPERATIVE.

Expect to Have the Factory in Operation by Middle of January.

Everything looks favorable now for starting the Star Glass Co. plant at this place about the middle of next month on the co-operative plan. The company has offered the men two hundred shares of stock at $50.00 per share, on easy payments, and the men are to have two members on the board of directors. A number of the glass workers have already taken stock.

It is expected when the factory is started on the co-operative plan that it will run until June and start an early fire in the fall. This co-operative agreement will mean that the glass plant will not be idle as many months during the year as it has been for a couple of years, which will be a good thing for the workmen and a good thing for Reynoldsville.

Popular Candidate.

Among those who will go before the Republican voters at the primary election next spring for political recognition none are more deserving than James S. Lockhart, of this place, who has announced that he will be a candidate for county treasurer. Mr. Lockhart has always been recognized as a staunch Republican and has done much for the success of the ticket in his district. He held the office of Burgess in the old borough of Clayville for two terms, conducting the office in a manner reflecting much credit to himself by his fearless and impartial dealings with his fellow men. He is now rounding out his second term of tax collector in the borough and has performed his duties in a manner entirely satisfactory to all concerned. Nine years ago he entered the contest for the Republican nomination for sheriff but in the interest of harmony in the party withdrew before making an active canvass. Since then he has had an eye on the county treasurer'ship but has waited until conditions assumed favorable aspect before announcing. He feels that the time has now arrived when his desires should be known to the voters and with that end in view is planning a vigorous campaign. Mr. Lockhart possesses the faculty of making and keeping friends, and has acquired something of a reputation as a "scraper" in politics by winning out in contests, however there has never been the least suspicion of anything but fair and honorable dealings, and among his best friends and most earnest supporters are his vanquished opponents.—Puxsawtawney Republican.

Notice to Parents.

Parents having children who will be six years old on or before April 1, 1908, are requested to start the same to school the first week after the holiday vacation. Hereafter six-year-olds, will be required to enter during the first week of the opening of the term in the fall and after the midwinter vacation. Parents should please bear this in mind. PRINCIPAL. Williamsport Commercial College. Eighty calls for bookkeepers and stenographers received since September 1st. Winter term begins January 6th. Trial lessons and catalogue free. We also teach by mail.

Couldn't Quit.

The audience laughed all evening because it couldn't help it. Gillilan wouldn't let them stop.—Binghamton (N. Y.) Republican. Mr. Gillilan will appear in the public school auditorium, Friday evening, Jan. 10, 1908. If you enjoy an evening of unadulterated fun, don't fail to hear him.

Republican Suggestion Meeting.

Republican suggestion meeting will be held in No. 2 hose house, 2nd precinct, at eight o'clock on Thursday evening, December 26, to suggest names for the different borough offices. COMMITTEE.

Notice to Taxables.

After January 1, 1908, there will be 5 per cent added on all unpaid taxes. All persons owing taxes prior to 1907 had better make payment of same soon and save costs, as I am going to make levies soon. AMOS STROUSE, Collector.

Remember Mother.

With a fine upholstered rocker; make her life easy. We never had such an assortment. C. R. HALL. Yes, speaking of candy we have plenty in good variety at fair prices. We are in shape to give you special prices. All goods absolutely pure. Robinson & Mundorff. White pine shingles for sale at W. A. Leech's planing mill, West Reynoldsville. We will reduce the price on all articles for the holidays. A. Katzen. Cardigan Jackets for Xmas at Millirens. Buy your boy a suit for Christmas from Bell. Silk mufflers at Millirens. If you want a bill of goods make out your list and let us give you our prices. We save you money. Try us. Robinson & Mundorff.

Smith for Congress.

Clarion, Jefferson, Armstrong and Indiana counties constitute one congressional district, represented at present by Hon. Joseph G. Beale. The district is now an open field for aspirants without any cut-throat rules or understandings to keep any one "off the grass." The race track regulations in this district are now a thing of the past. There are now no politicians authorized to say "start" to this one and "stay out" to that one, or to pull an "undesirable" one off the track altogether. Whoever wishes to do so can now run his chances at the polls without boss interference. Under these conditions the district should be represented by a capable man. So far there is only one man that the voters are giving much attention to, and that man is probably the best qualified in the district to represent us. He is comparatively a young man, full of vigor and energy. Equipped educationally and socially for the position, and above all, with experience and acknowledged ability in congressional work. We refer to Hon. W. O. Smith, of Puxsawtawney. During his service as a congressman, before being pushed aside by the rotation system, he kept in touch with his constituents, who felt that they had some one looking after their interests continually, and to-day are urging his re-election. Wherever the subject is discussed favorable mention is made of Hon. W. O. Smith. When the rank and file take notice, there is likely to be something doing, and we shall no doubt honor Mr. Smith by an election next fall.—New Bethlehem Vindicator.

The Santa Claus Question.

There seems to be only one real, sensible answer to the question whether we should encourage children to believe that there is such a personage as Santa Claus, or seek to discourage their minds of the idea. The time will come soon enough when the pleasing delusion will pass away, and with it many other things that have enraptured the mind of the child and filled it with glowing anticipation and delight. But why hasten this process of disenchantment, that gives so much happiness now? Why rob childhood of the joys we all had when we were children, and hung our stockings by the fire-place, and went to bed to dream sweet dreams and woke so early in such a fever of expectation—why not let the children believe in Santa Claus as long as they can and when they have outgrown the pleasing fiction leave it behind with the rag dolls and the Teddy Bears? Life will be serious enough for all of them after while. Why diminish their supply of gladness now, in the same spirit that sprinkles ashes on the sidewalks to deprive the children of the pleasure of coasting? How easy it is for the staid old cows to forget that they were once calves themselves.—Oil City Blizzard.

Killed Big Beef.

James and W. A. Sheesley killed a large beef for Westley Little last Monday that tipped the scales at a little over 1500 pounds. Mr. Little asked several first-class butchers to do the job for him, but they all refused because it was a very ferocious critter. The two men named above took it in hands to do the job and they handled it very successfully although had some difficulty in hanging it up. Jim has proven himself quite a butcher of late and deserves much credit for tackling a task of this kind when so many older butchers refused to take it at all.

A Dangerous Deadlock.

That sometimes terminates fatally, is the stoppage of liver and bowel functions. To quickly end this condition without disagreeable sensations, Dr. King's New Life Pills should always be your remedy. Guaranteed absolutely satisfactory in every case or money back, at Stoke & Felcht Drug Co. store, 25c. Reynoldsville and Sykesville.

Warning to the Public.

My son, Guy Hoemer, a minor, has left my home and I hereby caution all persons not to harbor him, and I will not be responsible for debts he may contract. C. HEEMER, Reynoldsville, Pa.

The regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the Citizens National bank of Reynoldsville will be held in their banking rooms on Tuesday, January 14, 1908, at 1.30 p. m., for the purpose of electing directors for the ensuing year and for the transaction of any other business that may properly come before that body. J. W. HUNTER, Cashier.

Stockholders' Meeting.

The regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the First National Bank of Reynoldsville, Pa., for the election of directors for the ensuing year and for the transaction of any other business that may properly come before it, will be held in the Banking Room on Tuesday, January 14th, 1908, at 3.00 p. m. K. C. SCHUCKERS, Cashier.

Here's Good Advice.

O. S. Woollever, one of the best known merchants of LeRayville, N. Y., says: "If you are ever troubled with piles, apply Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured me for good 20 years ago. Cures every sore, wound, burn or abrasion. 25c at Stoke & Felcht Drug Co. stores, Reynoldsville and Sykesville. The best store to buy ladies' and misses' coats is at Horwitz's in the old opera house building. You get the same goods at one-third less than the price you pay elsewhere. J. O. Johns, merchant tailor, next door to National hotel.
